

RIISING TIDE GLOBAL PROUDLY PRESENTS

BLIND TIGER

Blind Tiger is rooted in the spirit of the Prohibition era mixed with a modern ethos of inclusivity.

Founder Rebecca Styn opened Room 33 Speakeasy in 2017, quickly gaining a reputation for her craft cocktails. When the pandemic hit in 2020, restaurants shifted to takeout only which presented a very real challenge: although 90% of Room 33's sales had come from the bar, she were not legally allowed to sell alcohol-to-go. So, she and her team thought outside the coupe glass and started mixing up and bottling top-notch spirit-free cocktails that mirrored the flavors of the original — and Blind Tiger was born. - an all-inclusive luxury drink that lets you feel part of the occasion with or without alcohol.

Blind Tiger's lineup of inclusive, ready-to-drink, luxury cocktails enhances the limited dry options offered to consumers. Their formulation uses high quality, all-natural extracts and juices to provide the depth of flavor that cocktail enthusiasts pursue.

THE FOUNDER / MIXOLOGIST

Rebecca Styn, Ph. D. is the brains, palate, and heart behind Blind Tiger. Rebecca, in collaboration with the chief mixologist from her successful speakeasy bar and restaurant, imagined and developed original recipes for Blind Tiger's collection of luxury spirit-free beverages, capturing the richness and complexity of classic cocktails while invoking the mystique of the Prohibition era. Since its launch in late 2021, the brand has rapidly expanded distribution to 100 regions around the globe, and collected more than 25 top-tier national and international accolades.
